FYE Learning Communities

Still not enrolled in classes for spring? The learning communities may be a great option for you! This is where you take the same 3-4 courses with the same peers. The instructors work together as well in order to help all students succeed. We have two tracks you may choose from, depending on what English you would be taking in the spring. See the flyer below for details and apply today as spaces are limited!

El Exito - Success Workshops

Taking English and/or math classes in spring? Struggled a bit this semester and would like to be better prepared for next semester? We are offering success workshops for these courses!

These success workshops, what we call El Exito, will be taking place during the second week of January (you still get to enjoy a nice break!).

These are open to all FYE students who are seeking to be better prepared for the spring semester. Please see the flyer below for details and apply here ASAP to reserve your spot as space is limited.

★ Student of the Month ★

Angel is a music major and a hard working student. Whenever he finds himself in trouble he is always ready to ask his peer mentor for assistance and schedule a meeting to find solutions together. Great job Angel! The Via Rápida FYE team is rooting for you!
