

Dear Students:

You are invited to attend “Career Networking with Asian American & Pacific Islander Professionals” event, which is 5:30-7 p.m. on Tuesday, May 18th. Everyone is welcome!

This is a wonderful opportunity to ask these professionals how they were able to succeed in their fields, and how you can, too.

AAPI Professionals you get to meet in breakout rooms:

Career Field:	Name and Job Title:
Education	Daniela Sow - Assistant Professor of English and published writer June Yang - Department Chair and Professor of Philosophy Christine Ho - ARC Counselor Michiyo Kobayashi - Elementary Teacher and GATE Coordinator Wendy Cruzado - Counselor Helena Ayersman - Administration Assistant II EOPS
Criminal Justice	Lieutenant Karen Leong - Watch Commander, LAPD, Hollywood Division
Communication	Lorena Ruggero - Director, College & Community Relations, Public Relations and Marketing Strategist
Business	Joanne Borja - Staff Accountant and Grossmont College Alumni Jocelyn Rodis - Director, Accounting Operations & Systems, City of San Francisco Chris Li Owens - Human Resource Business Partner
Allied Health	Angela Ngo-Bigge , RN, MSN, FNP-C & Grossmont Nursing Instructor Moana Cabiles - Community Health Worker
Arts	Melonie Grinnell - Pianist & Director, Grossmont Piano Studies Kevin Capacia - Composer, Pianist, Percussionist, and Educator Mike Chung - Graphic Designer for the Superior Court of CA, County of Los Angeles
STEM	Cecille Browne - Director, Technical Operations, Research & Development, Thermo Fisher Scientific Nemie Capacia - Grossmont Math Professor and former IBM Software Engineer Onel Shina - Grossmont Math TA & Software Test Engineer Intern, Kitu Systems

The link to the flier is here!

Register in advance at: <http://tinyurl.com/pemndc9h>

Please also complete this Google form survey prior to attending the event so that we can learn more about your career choice and questions.