Sara Markowitz

ASGC Director of Website Development

“I believe I am a strong candidate because of my experience, dedication, and passion for supporting students. I thrive on connecting with my peers, listening to their concerns, and taking initiative to create positive change. My background and social skills allow me to engage effectively, foster inclusivity, and advocate for student needs. This role is the perfect opportunity to combine my leadership abilities with my commitment to making a meaningful impact. Together, we can build a stronger, more connected community.”
